IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR REVIEWERS

3. Emerald's principles on copyright

We recommend authors read our unique Authors' Charter and copyright principles at www.emeraldinsight.com/charter Emerald seeks to retain copyright of the articles it publishes, without the author giving up their rights to use their own material. Authors are not required to seek permission to reuse their own work. As an author you can use your paper in part or in full, including figures and tables (except where copyright is owned by a third party, in which case you must seek permission again) if you want to do so in a book, in another article written for us or another publisher, on your web site, or by any other use, without asking us first. We believe that this copyright policy benefits our authors by ensuring that we can:

- Develop our electronic publications and their delivery to meet customer needs and create maximum dissemination of authors' work
- Protect authors' moral rights and their work from plagiarism, unlawful copying and any other infringement of copyright
- Recoup copyright fees from Reproduction Rights Organisations to reinvest in new initiatives and author/user services. Emerald will provide a research grant/award of 25 per cent of copyright fee revenue up to £25,000 per annum to its research and author community. Emerald is registered with The Copyright Licensing Agency in the UK and The Copyright Clearance Center in the USA.
- Provide an efficient service for permissions
